

March Break Day Camp 2012

at the Simcoe County Museum

March Break Day Camp is an all day camp suitable for children ages 6-12 years old.
Come along as we take an amazing adventure together!

Pirates! - Monday, March 12, 2012

Ahoy! Become a Pirate for the day, search for treasure, walk the plank and make your own Pirate telescope and eye patch as we set sail for a day of adventurous fun and games.

Fairy Tale Frenzy - Tuesday, March 13, 2012

Your favourite story books come to life during Fairy Tale Frenzy. Find your way to the witch's candy house as Hansel and Gretel, create your own magic mirror and uncover the mystery of who stole the tarts from the Queen of Hearts. Take fairy tales to another level as we recreate some of the most cherished children's stories.

Truth, Lies & Mysteries - Wednesday, March 14, 2012

Investigate the world of counterfeiting and determine real from phoney. Visit the exhibit Fakes and Forgeries, discover how Canada's paper money is protected from forgery, and closely examine pieces of the Simcoe County Museum's collection in a game of Truth, Lies and Mysteries!

Lost Civilizations - Thursday, March 15, 2012

Explore the cultures of the Aztecs, Maya and the Byzantines! Be part of Aztec society as we race to the temple, look like an ancient Maya when we make a Maya Shirt and create a vibrant mosaic like those made during the Byzantine Empire.

Mythical Creatures - Friday, March 16, 2012

From Kempenfelt Kelly to the mystical Mermaid, discover some famous and infamous mythical creatures from around the world. Race mermaids, follow the trail of the Unicorn and make your own mythical creature. Join us for this magical journey with the fascinating creatures from the world of legends and myths.

Camp runs from 10:00 AM till 4:00 PM. Babysitting available.
Space is limited so be sure to register your day camper(s) early.
