Observe the copyrights of our talented designers, publishers, and quilters

When a pattern, book, or magazine is purchased, we can duplicate these designs for our own personal use. However, once we exhibit in public, we have an obligation to identify the design inspiration sources and give the copyright owner credit. Be sure to identify the name of the designer and the source of the pattern (pattern name and book or magazine) in the description portion of the entry form. If another person has machine or hand quilted your entry, it should also be noted in your description.
